4. Comments:

4.1) What did you like BEST about this class?

- How useful all the information is.
- I got to learn more about myself and was able to see more clearly leadership skills when having to think in depth about them weekly.
- Overall, very interesting learning about Leadership Development and how to make an impression on others.
- TED Talks applying to the material.
- The Ted Talks
- The assignments were straight forward, the material well organized, the due dates clear, expectations were easy to understand and meet
- The concept of improving my leadership abilities.
- the material was interesting to learn
- the opportunity to work on the assignments all throughout the week knowing your due dates were the same each week

4.2) What did you like LEAST about this class?

- A lot of work for a one semester class
- All the requirements. A lot of readings and assignments for a one credit class.
- How there was only one chance on every quiz.
- It involves a lot of busy work. As a junior, I have already been exposed to the majority of the course material, but I needed this course for the leadership certificate so it's more time consuming then beneficial.
- It's just an introductory course with information I didn't need to know. After doing a lot of leadership, intro courses can get quite repetitive. Not Julie's fault in the slightest.
- Some homework assignments were due over Fall break and it took a good amount of time. Personally, have some easier homework due of break or give us the entire break to complete it.
- The short amount of time spent on everything, would have rather taken it as an actual class.
- When I contacted the teacher, she did not respond and I email her about 4 times.
- some of the material felt redundant and writing pages rather than short response felt extremely unnecessary for the prompts given
